3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Psalms 104:1-4 & 24-40

(Psalms 104:1) Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, you are very great! You are clothed with splendor and majesty,

(Psalms 104:2) covering yourself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent.

(Psalms 104:3) He lays the beams of his chambers on the waters; he makes the clouds his chariot; he rides on the wings of the wind;

(Psalms 104:4) he makes his messengers winds, his ministers a flaming fire.

(Psalms 104:24) O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.

(Psalms 104:25) Here is the sea, great and wide, which teems with creatures innumerable, living things both small and great.

(Psalms 104:26) There go the ships, and Leviathan, which you formed to play in it.

(Psalms 104:27) These all look to you, to give them their food in due season.

(Psalms 104:28) When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

(Psalms 104:29) When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

(Psalms 104:30) When you send forth your Spirit, they are created, and you renew the face of the ground.
