Application — Five Takeaways

June 18, 2017

Judges 11:4-11 & 28-31

1. We should not let the circumstances of our birth or other misfortunes or persecutions make us think that we cannot be of service to God and others.
2. God calls people to serve Him in a great variety of ways, so we need to know the Bible well; then, when He calls us to serve Him we will not be deceived by imposters.
3. We need to learn as much as we can from the Bible to make us wise toward God, so we will not make foolish and unnecessary vows or sin without quickly repenting.
4. We need to return to obeying God immediately when we sin, so we will not commit even worse sins or mislead others into committing a sin.
5. Before we do something worse, God will sometimes give us encouragement, opportunity, and time to humble ourselves and repent of our sins.
