(Amos 8:4) Hear this, you who trample the needy and do away with the poor of the land,

(Amos 8:5) saying, “When will the New Moon be over that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath be ended that we may market wheat?”—skimping on the measure, boosting the price and cheating with dishonest scales,

(Amos 8:6) buying the poor with silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, selling even the sweepings with the wheat.

(Amos 8:7) The LORD has sworn by himself, the Pride of Jacob: “I will never forget anything they have done.

(Amos 8:8) “Will not the land tremble for this, and all who live in it mourn? The whole land will rise like the Nile; it will be stirred up and then sink like the river of Egypt.

(Amos 8:11) “The days are coming,” declares the Sovereign LORD, “when I will send a famine through the land—not a famine of food or a thirst for water, but a famine of hearing the words of the LORD.

(Amos 8:12) People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from north to east, searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

(Amos 8:13) “In that day the lovely young women and strong young men will faint because of thirst.

(Amos 8:14) Those who swear by the sin of Samaria—who say, ‘As surely as your god lives, Dan,’ or, ‘As surely as the god of Beersheba lives’—they will fall, never to rise again.”
