Song of Solomon 6:4-12

(Song of Solomon 6:4) “You are as beautiful as Tirzah, my darling, As lovely as Jerusalem, As awesome as an army with banners.

(Song of Solomon 6:5) “Turn your eyes away from me, For they have confused me; Your hair is like a flock of goats That have descended from Gilead.

(Song of Solomon 6:6) “Your teeth are like a flock of ewes Which have come up from their washing, All of which bear twins, And not one among them has lost her young.

(Song of Solomon 6:7) “Your temples are like a slice of a pomegranate Behind your veil.

(Song of Solomon 6:8) “There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, And maidens without number;

(Song of Solomon 6:9) But my dove, my perfect one, is unique: She is her mother's only daughter; She is the pure child of the one who bore her. The maidens saw her and called her blessed, The queens and the concubines also, and they praised her, saying,

(Song of Solomon 6:10) 'Who is this that grows like the dawn, As beautiful as the full moon, As pure as the sun, As awesome as an army with banners?'

(Song of Solomon 6:11) “I went down to the orchard of nut trees To see the blossoms of the valley, To see whether the vine had budded Or the pomegranates had bloomed.

(Song of Solomon 6:12) “Before I was aware, my soul set me Over the chariots of my noble people.”
