Study Guide on Romans 12:1-2 & 13:8-14

New Revised Standard Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.
Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.
1. What does this verse say?
2. What does this verse mean to me?
3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Romans 12:1-2 & 13:8-14

(Romans 12:1) I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

(Romans 12:2) Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

(Romans 13:8) Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.

(Romans 13:9) The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet"; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself."

(Romans 13:10) Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

(Romans 13:11) Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers;

(Romans 13:12) the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light;

(Romans 13:13) let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy.

(Romans 13:14) Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.
