Study Guide on Hebrews 3:1-6 & Matthew 7:24-29
New Revised Standard Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.
Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.
1. What does this verse say?
2. What does this verse mean to me?
3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Hebrews 3:1-6

(Hebrews 3:1) Therefore, brothers and sisters, holy partners in a heavenly calling, consider that Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession,

(Hebrews 3:2) was faithful to the one who appointed him, just as Moses also "was faithful in all God's house."

(Hebrews 3:3) Yet Jesus is worthy of more glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself.

(Hebrews 3:4) (For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.)

(Hebrews 3:5) Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that would be spoken later.

(Hebrews 3:6) Christ, however, was faithful over God's house as a son, and we are his house if we hold firm the confidence and the pride that belong to hope.

Matthew 7:24-29

(Matthew 7:24) "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.

(Matthew 7:25) The rain fell, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on rock.

(Matthew 7:26) And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not act on them will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

(Matthew 7:27) The rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell—and great was its fall!"

(Matthew 7:28) Now when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were astounded at his teaching,

(Matthew 7:29) for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.
