3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Galatians 5:18-6:10

(Galatians 5:18) But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law.

(Galatians 5:19) Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness,

(Galatians 5:20) idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions,

(Galatians 5:21) envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

(Galatians 5:22) By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness,

(Galatians 5:23) gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things.

(Galatians 5:24) And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

(Galatians 5:25) If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

(Galatians 5:26) Let us not become conceited, competing against one another, envying one another.

(Galatians 6:1) My friends, if anyone is detected in a transgression, you who have received the Spirit should restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness. Take care that you yourselves are not tempted.

(Galatians 6:2) Bear one another's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

(Galatians 6:3) For if those who are nothing think they are something, they deceive themselves.

(Galatians 6:4) All must test their own work; then that work, rather than their neighbor's work, will become a cause for pride.

(Galatians 6:5) For all must carry their own loads.

(Galatians 6:6) Those who are taught the word must share in all good things with their teacher.

(Galatians 6:7) Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow.

(Galatians 6:8) If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit.

(Galatians 6:9) So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.

(Galatians 6:10) So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.
