Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study. Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.

1. What does this verse say?
2. What does this verse mean to me?
3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Romans 5:6-11 & 8:31-39

(Romans 5:6) You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly.

(Romans 5:7) Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die.

(Romans 5:8) But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

(Romans 5:9) Since we have now been justified by his blood, how much more shall we be saved from God’s wrath through him!

(Romans 5:10) For if, while we were God’s enemies, we were reconciled to him through the death of his Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through his life!

(Romans 5:11) Not only is this so, but we also boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

(Romans 8:31) What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

(Romans 8:32) He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

(Romans 8:33) Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies.

(Romans 8:34) Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us.
(Romans 8:35) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword?

(Romans 8:36) As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

(Romans 8:37) No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

(Romans 8:38) For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers,

(Romans 8:39) neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
