

Study Guide on Romans 5:6-11 & 8:31-39

New Revised Standard Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.
Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.

1. What does this verse say?
2. What does this verse mean to me?
3. Discuss your answers with the class.

Romans 5:6-11 & 8:31-39

(Romans 5:6) For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

(Romans 5:7) Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die.

(Romans 5:8) But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

(Romans 5:9) Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God.

(Romans 5:10) For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

(Romans 5:11) But more than that, we even boast in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

(Romans 8:31) What then are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

(Romans 8:32) He who did not withhold his own Son, but gave him up for all of us, will he not with him also give us everything else?

(Romans 8:33) Who will bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.

(Romans 8:34) Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

(Romans 8:35) Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

(Romans 8:36) As it is written, “For your sake we are being killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep to be slaughtered.”

(Romans 8:37) No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

(Romans 8:38) For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers,

(Romans 8:39) nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
