(Luke 24:1) But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared.

(Luke 24:2) They found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

(Luke 24:3) but when they went in, they did not find the body.

(Luke 24:4) While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them.

(Luke 24:5) The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen.

(Luke 24:6) Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee,

(Luke 24:7) that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again."

(Luke 24:8) Then they remembered his words,

(Luke 24:9) and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

(Luke 24:10) Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles.

(Luke 24:11) But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

(Luke 24:12) But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

(Luke 24:30) When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

(Luke 24:31) Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight.

(Luke 24:32) They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?”

(Luke 24:33) That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together.

(Luke 24:34) They were saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!”

(Luke 24:35) Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.
