(Mark 14:17) And when it was evening, he came with the twelve.

(Mark 14:18) And as they were reclining at table and eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me.”

(Mark 14:19) They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, “Is it I?”

(Mark 14:20) He said to them, “It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me.

(Mark 14:21) For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

(Mark 14:22) And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.”

(Mark 14:23) And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it.

(Mark 14:24) And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.

(Mark 14:25) Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

(Hebrews 8:6) But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry that is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant he mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises.

(Hebrews 8:7) For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion to look for a second.

(Hebrews 8:8) For he finds fault with them when he says: “Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah,

(Hebrews 8:9) not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. For they did not continue in my covenant, and so I showed no concern for them, declares the Lord.

(Hebrews 8:10) For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the Lord: I will put my laws into their minds, and write them on their hearts, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

(Hebrews 8:11) And they shall not teach, each one his neighbor and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord,’ for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

(Hebrews 8:12) For I will be merciful toward their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more.”

(Hebrews 8:13) In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.
