(Mark 14:17) When evening came, Jesus arrived with the Twelve.

(Mark 14:18) While they were reclining at the table eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me—one who is eating with me.”

(Mark 14:19) They were saddened, and one by one they said to him, “Surely you don’t mean me?”

(Mark 14:20) “It is one of the Twelve,” he replied, “one who dips bread into the bowl with me.

(Mark 14:21) The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

(Mark 14:22) While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take it; this is my body.”

(Mark 14:23) Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

(Mark 14:24) “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many,” he said to them.

(Mark 14:25) “Truly I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

(Hebrews 8:6) But in fact the ministry Jesus has received is as superior to theirs as the covenant of which he is mediator is superior to the old one, since the new covenant is established on better promises.

(Hebrews 8:7) For if there had been nothing wrong with that first covenant, no place would have been sought for another.

(Hebrews 8:8) But God found fault with the people and said: “The days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and with the people of Judah.

(Hebrews 8:9) It will not be like the covenant I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they did not remain faithful to my covenant, and I turned away from them, declares the Lord.

(Hebrews 8:10) This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel after that time, declares the Lord. I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people.

(Hebrews 8:11) No longer will they teach their neighbor, or say to one another, ‘Know the Lord,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

(Hebrews 8:12) For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.”

(Hebrews 8:13) By calling this covenant “new,” he has made the first one obsolete; and what is obsolete and outdated will soon disappear.
