(John 4:30) They came out of the town and made their way toward him.

(John 4:31) Meanwhile his disciples urged him, “Rabbi, eat something.”

(John 4:32) But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

(John 4:33) Then his disciples said to each other, “Could someone have brought him food?”

(John 4:34) “My food,” said Jesus, “is to do the will of him who sent me and to finish his work.

(John 4:35) Don’t you have a saying, ‘It’s still four months until harvest’? I tell you, open your eyes and look at the fields! They are ripe for harvest.

(John 4:36) Even now the one who reaps draws a wage and harvests a crop for eternal life, so that the sower and the reaper may be glad together.

(John 4:37) Thus the saying ‘One sows and another reaps’ is true.

(John 4:38) I sent you to reap what you have not worked for. Others have done the hard work, and you have reaped the benefits of their labor.”

(John 4:39) Many of the Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I ever did.”

(John 4:40) So when the Samaritans came to him, they urged him to stay with them, and he stayed two days.

(John 4:41) And because of his words many more became believers.

(John 4:42) They said to the woman, “We no longer believe just because of what you said; now we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the Savior of the world.”
