(John 6:35) Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

(John 6:36) But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe.

(John 6:37) All those the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away.

(John 6:38) For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me.

(John 6:39) And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all those he has given me, but raise them up at the last day.

(John 6:40) For my Father’s will is that everyone who looks to the Son and believes in him shall have eternal life, and I will raise them up at the last day.”

(John 6:41) At this the Jews there began to grumble about him because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.”

(John 6:42) They said, “Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How can he now say, ‘I came down from heaven’?”

(John 6:43) “Stop grumbling among yourselves,” Jesus answered.

(John 6:44) “No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them, and I will raise them up at the last day.

(John 6:45) It is written in the Prophets: ‘They will all be taught by God.’ Everyone who has heard the Father and learned from him comes to me.

(John 6:46) No one has seen the Father except the one who is from God; only he has seen the Father.”
