John 17:9-19 Scripture Handout New International Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.
Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.

1. What does this verse say?
 2. What does this verse mean to me?
- Discuss your answers with the class.

(John 17:9) I pray for them. I am not praying for the world, but for those you have given me, for they are yours.

(John 17:10) All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And glory has come to me through them.

(John 17:11) I will remain in the world no longer, but they are still in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one.

(John 17:12) While I was with them, I protected them and kept them safe by that name you gave me. None has been lost except the one doomed to destruction so that Scripture would be fulfilled.

(John 17:13) "I am coming to you now, but I say these things while I am still in the world, so that they may have the full measure of my joy within them.

(John 17:14) I have given them your word and the world has hated them, for they are not of the world any more than I am of the world.

(John 17:15) My prayer is not that you take them out of the world but that you protect them from the evil one.

(John 17:16) They are not of the world, even as I am not of it.

(John 17:17) Sanctify them by the truth; your word is truth.

(John 17:18) As you sent me into the world, I have sent them into the world.

(John 17:19) For them I sanctify myself, that they too may be truly sanctified.”
