1. What does this verse say?
  2. What does this verse mean to me?
- Discuss your answers with the class.

(John 17:9) “I am asking on their behalf; I am not asking on behalf of the world, but on behalf of those whom you gave me, because they are yours.

(John 17:10) All mine are yours, and yours are mine; and I have been glorified in them.

(John 17:11) And now I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, protect them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one, as we are one.

(John 17:12) While I was with them, I protected them in your name that you have given me. I guarded them, and not one of them was lost except the one destined to be lost, so that the scripture might be fulfilled.

(John 17:13) But now I am coming to you, and I speak these things in the world so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.

(John 17:14) I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

(John 17:15) I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.

(John 17:16) They do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.

(John 17:17) Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.

(John 17:18) As you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

(John 17:19) And for their sakes I sanctify myself, so that they also may be sanctified in truth.”
