Deuteronomy 24:14–21; Ephesians 6:5–9; 1 Timothy 6:17–19

Scripture Handout New English Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Deuteronomy 24:14) "You shall not oppress a hired worker who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your brothers or one of the sojourners who are in your land within your towns.

(Deuteronomy 24:15) You shall give him his wages on the same day, before the sun sets (for he is poor and counts on it), lest he cry against you to the LORD, and you be guilty of sin.

(Deuteronomy 24:16) "Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, nor shall children be put to death because of their fathers. Each one shall be put to death for his own sin.

(Deuteronomy 24:17) "You shall not pervert the justice due to the sojourner or to the fatherless, or take a widow's garment in pledge,

(Deuteronomy 24:18) but you shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there; therefore I command you to do this.

(Deuteronomy 24:19) "When you reap your harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to get it. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

(Deuteronomy 24:20) When you beat your olive trees, you shall not go over them again. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

(Deuteronomy 24:21) When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not strip it afterward. It shall be for the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow.

(Ephesians 6:5) Bondservants, obey your earthly masters with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ,

(Ephesians 6:6) not by the way of eye-service, as people-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart,

(Ephesians 6:7) rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man,

(Ephesians 6:8) knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a bondservant or is free.

(Ephesians 6:9) Masters, do the same to them, and stop your threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

(1 Timothy 6:17) As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy.

(1 Timothy 6:18) They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share,

(1 Timothy 6:19) thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.
