Judges 2:6-15 Scripture Handout New Revised Standard Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Judges 2:6) When Joshua dismissed the people, the Israelites all went to their own inheritances to take possession of the land.

(Judges 2:7) The people worshiped the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel.

(Judges 2:8) Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred ten years.

(Judges 2:9) So they buried him within the bounds of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

(Judges 2:10) Moreover, that whole generation was gathered to their ancestors, and another generation grew up after them, who did not know the LORD or the work that he had done for Israel.

(Judges 2:11) Then the Israelites did what was evil in the sight of the LORD and worshiped the Baals;

(Judges 2:12) and they abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt; they followed other gods, from among the gods of the peoples who were all around them, and bowed down to them; and they provoked the LORD to anger.

(Judges 2:13) They abandoned the LORD, and worshiped Baal and the Astartes.

(Judges 2:14) So the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he gave them over to plunderers who plundered them, and he sold them into the power of their enemies all around, so that they could no longer withstand their enemies.

(Judges 2:15) Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to bring misfortune, as the LORD had warned them and sworn to them; and they were in great distress.
