Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Judges 3:15) Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The people of Israel sent tribute by him to Eglon the king of Moab.

(Judges 3:16) And Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length, and he bound it on his right thigh under his clothes.

(Judges 3:17) And he presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

(Judges 3:18) And when Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who carried the tribute.

(Judges 3:19) But he himself turned back at the idols near Gilgal and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." And he commanded, "Silence." And all his attendants went out from his presence.

(Judges 3:20) And Ehud came to him as he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. And Ehud said, "I have a message from God for you." And he arose from his seat.

(Judges 3:21) And Ehud reached with his left hand, took the sword from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.

(Judges 3:22) And the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not pull the sword out of his belly; and the dung came out.

(Judges 3:23) Then Ehud went out into the porch and closed the doors of the roof chamber behind him and locked them.

(Judges 3:30) So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest for eighty years.
