

Judges 3:15–23, 30 Scripture Handout New Revised Standard Version

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.

(Judges 3:15) But when the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up for them a deliverer, Ehud son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a left-handed man. The Israelites sent tribute by him to King Eglon of Moab.

(Judges 3:16) Ehud made for himself a sword with two edges, a cubit in length; and he fastened it on his right thigh under his clothes.

(Judges 3:17) Then he presented the tribute to King Eglon of Moab. Now Eglon was a very fat man.

(Judges 3:18) When Ehud had finished presenting the tribute, he sent the people who carried the tribute on their way.

(Judges 3:19) But he himself turned back at the sculptured stones near Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king." So the king said, "Silence!" and all his attendants went out from his presence.

(Judges 3:20) Ehud came to him, while he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber, and said, "I have a message from God for you." So he rose from his seat.

(Judges 3:22) the hilt also went in after the blade, and the fat closed over the blade, for he did not draw the sword out of his belly; and the dirt came out.

(Judges 3:23) Then Ehud went out into the vestibule, and closed the doors of the roof chamber on him, and locked them.

(Judges 3:30) So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.
