Application — Five Takeaways from 2 Chronicles 7:11-22

1. We need to begin well, as King Solomon did, but also trust in Jesus and end well.
2. We should never think that because we are smart or more favored than others that we can disobey God without any consequences.
3. If we sin, we need to humble ourselves before Jesus and admit we have sinned; we need to pray to Jesus and ask His forgiveness; we need to turn from our wicked ways and ask Jesus for help to live in ways that always bring honor to Him.
4. We need to walk faithfully before God our Father and obey His commands as Jesus and His disciples did.
5. We need to pray for the Lord's help daily as we study the Bible; then, with Jesus' help we will never live in such a way that someone could say of us: they have forsaken the Lord Jesus who died and rose again to save them.
