Application — Five Takeaways from Luke 24:1-12 & 30-35

1. The women who went to Jesus' tomb did not have the Bible that we have, so they needed angels to explain that Jesus had risen from the dead and why He died and rose.
2. The Eleven should have believed the testimony of the women, for they had and gave sufficient evidence to them for them to believe that Jesus was raised from the dead.
3. After He rose from the dead, Jesus himself gave convincing and sufficient evidence of His bodily resurrection to everyone who saw Him, and they believed in Him.
4. After His resurrection, Jesus explained the Old Testament teachings about himself to His disciples, so they would believe, teach, and lead others to saving faith in Him.
5. God has given us enough reasons in the Bible for us to accept and believe in the crucified, dead, buried, and risen Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior.
