Application — Five Takeaways from Revelation 4:1-11

1. The Spirit of God draws us toward the invisible God, Whose beauty surrounds us. We can praise God for our lives and the gift of the wonderful world in which we live.
2. God is eternal, with no beginning and no end. God lives forever and ever. We can always depend on God to be there in every situation forever and ever.
3. God is Holy and Almighty. God created all things and by His will they retain their existence. Everything God has done, does, and will do in our lives and in the world is holy, and God has the power to overcome all other powers wherever they might be.
4. All that exists totally depends on God for existence, and we need to totally depend on God each day, trusting in His words and wisdom in the Bible for hope and guidance.
5. God is worthy to receive glory and honor and power (for God always uses all power rightly in holy love); therefore, all the beings around God's throne give God glory, honor and thanks as they worship God and so should we and all creation.
