Five Applications from Luke 16:19-31

1. Our beliefs, choices, and patterns of behavior can have good or bad consequences, some can have eternal consequences.
2. We need to be conscious of those around us: there may be some that we can prayerfully and wisely help using the resources God has given us.
3. At death, angels will come to take the followers of Christ to live with all God's children.
4. Those who think only of themselves will not obey the will of God.
5. We need to believe the Bible and its warnings. Even though Jesus rose from the dead, many still will not believe the Bible until it is too late.
