John 6:1-14 Application

1. Jesus performed so many different signs and helped others in such a variety of ways that we have good and sufficient reasons to believe in Him and believe all He said.
2. We must not follow Jesus or anyone else simply for material reasons alone, because we can come to love the things of this world more than God.
3. Jesus may test us from time to time to show us how we need to increase our faith in Him and become more like Him with His help.
4. Whatever we have, no matter how little or how much, we can help others with what we have been given by God—if only with our prayers for Jesus to help them where we cannot be used by Him except through our prayers.
5. Jesus will fully satisfy us and all who believe in Him as He fully satisfied the crowd and His disciples, but not always in ways that we would expect.
