John 9:1-12 Application

1. Not every misfortune needs to be traced to someone's personal sin, for not every misfortune is caused by someone's personal sin.

2. Sometimes people try to trace a misfortune to someone's personal sin so they can have an excuse not to help them but let them suffer punishment.

3. Some speculations are of no value to anyone and can be harmful.

4. Christians can overcome some misfortunes by doing and revealing God's works as they take action.

5. For Jesus' cure to be effective in the man born blind, he needed to obey Jesus completely. Jesus expects His followers to obey Him completely.
