John 9:13-23 Application

1. We cannot always depend on our neighbors to do what is in our best interests.

2. Some people are more concerned about rules and regulations made by people than they are about people.

3. Christians will not always obey rules that obviously do not come from God or are contrary to what the Bible teaches.

4. We need to evaluate people's ideas, rules, and teachings, and we need to reject beliefs and behaviors that are contrary to the teachings of Jesus.

5. It is not always necessary to tell all the truths that you know, but it is always necessary to tell the truth.
