John 18:1-11 Application

1. As disciples of Jesus Christ, sometimes those we think of as our closest friends and fellow disciples of Jesus Christ will betray us.
2. As disciples of Jesus Christ, sometimes our best course of action may be to treat those who betray us as Jesus treated Judas. Remember: Judas and the devil worked together when they betrayed Jesus.
3. Jesus knew the future perfectly and the outcome of His arrest, but He faced that future with full confidence in His Father. As Jesus' disciples, we can face the future with full confidence in our heavenly Father and Jesus.
4. Jesus prayed to the Father and did the Father's will, so He did not lose any of His disciples when He was arrested. He will never lose His disciples.
5. Jesus did not teach that a disciple should never use a sword. When He was arrested, He said that it was not the time to use a sword.
