

Thinking Further for Extra Credit

1. What might you do if you see a brother or sister in Christ committing a sin that is not a mortal (deadly or fatal) sin?

2. How would you define or recognize a sin that is mortal (deadly or fatal)? What might you do, but are not commanded to do, if you see someone committing a sin that is mortal? What else might you do?

3. What does God do for those who are born of God, God's children?

4. Under whose power is the whole world? Do you see evidence of its power in the world today? Give some examples.

5. What promises did John give to the followers of Jesus Christ as he concluded his letter? What was his last command?