Lesson 10

James 5:1-6 Scripture Handout

New American Standard Bible

Assign each person in the class one or more verses to study.
Each person should answer these two questions on their assigned verse.

1. What does this verse say?
  2. What does this verse mean to me?
- Discuss your answers with the class.

(James 5:1) Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you.

(James 5:2) Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten.

(James 5:3) Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have stored up your treasure!

(James 5:4) Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

(James 5:5) You have lived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

(James 5:6) You have condemned and put to death the righteous man; he does not resist you.
