James 1:19-27 Application

1. If we memorize, remember, and practice being quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger, we can produce God's righteousness.

2. If we implant the word of God into our hearts and minds, the truth of God's word will save us from practicing sin and have the power to save our souls.

3. If we merely hear the word of God and do not do the will of God, we can deceive ourselves into thinking our souls are saved.

4. The perfect law is the law of liberty, the law regarding our loving God fully in Jesus Christ who demonstrated the grace and truth of God and who helps us persevere in loving others as He loves us.

5. Christians do not care only for themselves; they care for those in distress, such as widows and orphans.
