

Assurance of Salvation

Romans 8:28-39

Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us (Romans 8:34—KJV).

Who is the one who condemns? Christ Jesus is He who died, yes, rather who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who also intercedes for us (Romans 8:34—NASB).

Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us (Romans 8:34—NRSV).

God proved His love for us by sending Jesus Christ to die for our sins. God did not wait until we felt sorry for all the ungodly and sinful things we have said and done. God did not wait for us to recognize that we were powerless to change ourselves without His help. God did not wait for us to long to be made right with Him, with others where possible, and within ourselves. No. Because God loves us, God acted first. At the right time, God sent Jesus Christ to save us from ourselves and from the eternal punishment we deserve because of our behavior. By God's grace, through faith in Jesus Christ, God made us right with Him. Through our continuing relationship with Jesus Christ, we stay right with Him, and we begin to make the changes in our lives that God knows is best for us and others. We still face temptations and sin sometimes; we sometimes suffer unexpectedly, but God loves us and remains faithful to us. We know this because Jesus died to save us. More than this, Christ rose from the dead and assures us of eternal life. More than this, because Jesus now sits at the right hand of God, all the power God can rightly and wisely use each day in our behalf God will use. Finally, as though this were not enough, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit pray for us each day knowing our trials and temptations in advance. Because Jesus loves us and lives for us, nothing will separate us from God's love.

4. What reason did Paul give for us to believe “that God would graciously give us all things” (Romans 8:32)?
5. Why can no one succeed with God if they bring a charge against us or condemn us as a Christian? Give a reason for your answer.
